

Safeguarding Policy

The Foundation is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and vulnerable persons, particularly fatherless children.

We operate a zero-tolerance approach to abuse, exploitation, or harm.

All trustees, staff, volunteers, and partners share responsibility for safeguarding.

Concerns must be reported promptly and will be addressed in line with applicable laws.